Acts 2:42 Community Group Homework

For the week of February 28, 2010

1. One thing I'm afraid of is...

Into the Bible

2. Read 3:11, 13, 4:1; 4:10-13. In your own words, what were the five excuses or fears that Moses gave God?

3. To each of Moses' fears, God responds with a promise.

4. How does Stephen's description of Moses in Acts 7:22 differ from Moses' description of himself in Exodus 4:10? What do you make of the difference?

5. That God is "I AM" means that He is self-existent, uncreated, without cause. Why is that comforting to Moses? Why is that comforting to us?

Application

6. Sometimes we can be like Moses and hide our pride in false humility. Why does this make God so angry?

7. What God orders He also provides for. But often what God provides isn't seen right away or until we step out in faith. Why do you think God plans it this way? How has this been true in your life?

8. What commands of God are you most likely to hesitate to obey (e.g. sharing Christ, training your children, standing up for what is right).

9. What fear keeps you from obeying?

10. How has God already provided the "resources" you need so that you only need to step out in faith?
